"A World-Wide Household of Worship..."

"To worship is to quicken the conscience by the holiness of God, to feed the mind with the truth of God, to purge the imagination by the beauty of God, to open the heart to the love of God, and to devote the will to the purpose of God."

The Church is a house of worship. It is a place of prayer for all people, a source from which the will of God may be known and done. "Christ loved the Church and gave Himself for it." Through His mission the Church has become a world-wide household of worship, fellowship and active faith.

Seven hundred million Christians in almost every land now share with Him His purpose. The primary objective of ecumenical mission and relations is to build the Church that Christ through His Church may redeem the world.

ECUMENICAL MISSION AND RELATIONS

The supreme and controlling aim of the Christian Mission to the world is to make the Lord Jesus Christ known to all men as their Divine and only Savior, and to persuade them to become His disciples and responsible members of His Church in which Christians of all lands share in evangelizing the world and permeating all of life with the spirit and truth of Christ.

David Waggoner, Pastor Emeritus of Memorial Church entered the Church Triumphant 12 February 1959

As a social service to the community the church has offered Waggoner Hall one day a week for meetings of the local Alaska Native Brotherhood and Sisterhood.

On invitation of the Hoonah Presbyterian Church Session a three day evangelistic service was held in the community of Hoonah, March 11,12,13 with an attendance of 65, 82, 102. An annual ~~series~~ series of meetings like this for Angoon, Kake, Hoonah, Klawock, Craig, Hydaburg, etc with use of our ships would add much to the strength of our church effectiveness. I have been asked why we do not ~~promote~~ promote this oftener. During the Hoonah meetings approximately 12 made new decisions or rededications.

A Meditation for Today

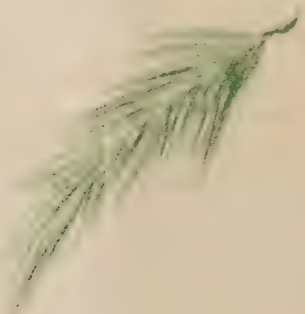

Our Father, we are thinking of Christ and of His triumphal entry into a city long ago. The picture of it comes back to us and we are praying that He may come in triumph this day into every life, rebuking all selfishness and stimulating all virtue and righteousness.

We pray that He may ride in triumph into the life of every home, every business and industry.

We pray that He may ride in triumph into the lives of nations. We pray that He may ride in triumph into all our social relations. Purify our common life by His presence and make clean our hearts within us.

May He come with the shining of His face into every darkened room, may His healing touch be on every fevered brow.

So may our city and our homes and our nation be holy tomorrow because we turned aside this day to welcome the coming of our King.

THE PRE-EASTER SEASON affords us an opportunity for a rich measure of blessings. He who was wounded for our transgressions and bruised for our iniquities invites us to come closer to him in meditation and prayer. In Him alone can we find the peace our hearts yearn for. In Him alone is our foundation of joy.

Whoever fails in this pre-Easter season to give more time to meditation, prayer and worship will lose much in spiritual strength. All the historical memories, all the favorable elements of the season, all the helpfulness of general observance combine to give unusual opportunities for greater likeness to Christ.

This is a call to nobler living through Christian consecration. God can and will bless us—if we are willing.

A manual entitled "OLDER PERSONS IN THE CHURCH PROGRAM" was recently published and is available by the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. Board of Christian Education.

ARLINGTON HALL and HENDERSON HALL, private estates in Washington, D. C., taken over by the armed forces, have been "invaded" by a WAVE detachment, according to Willis Bergen, minister to military personnel in the Washington area. About 1.2 per cent of the armed forces in Washington military district are women. About 90 per cent of the women are active in religious work and many have joined the Arlington Presbyterian Church.

NEWLY-ORGANIZED Delta Presbyterian Church in El Paso, Texas, has a streamlined program for its integrated congregation. Located in an area where the population is about 50-50 Spanish and Anglo-American, the mission-aided church brings both language groups together in one service of worship. The sermons and prayers, paragraph by paragraph, are given in Spanish and in English. Familiar hymns are sung by the worshipers in the language of their choice.

THE YEAR BOOK OF PRAYER FOR MISSIONS is a valuable aid to personal and group devotions. The book includes lists of active and retired missionaries, overseas national workers, full-time Westminster Foundation pastors and assistants and thumbnail sketches of Presbyterian fields of activity around the world. Available from Presbyterian Service centers for 35c.

THE OFFICE of the State Clerk of General Assembly has undertaken a comprehensive survey to discover the extent to which racial integration has been achieved in our denomination and in its agencies and institutions.

WE WELCOME YOU. That this Church may be a house of Prayer for all people who love the Lord Christ and desire to learn of Him, Who is the Way, the Truth and the Life, we bid you welcome to the work and worship of this congregation.

SACRIFICE

"Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." Read Mark 15:21-37

THE WORLD has many symbols, but none is so significant as the cross. It stands for God's love, shown us in His Son. It stands for the love of Jesus Christ, shown us in His death on Calvary. It stands for salvation from sin and for the gift of life. It stands for sacrifice.

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast
Save in the death of Christ my God:
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.

THE MISSIONARY ROAD

Sunday was like any other day in the new town that had no church. "Let's go back home," a child coaxed, "where God is."

Youngsters who sailed the Mayflower did no such looking back. Their parents had "a great hope," their governor said, of laying a foundation for advancing the gospel in remote parts.

Some 3,000 national missionaries are among the 1958 prototypes of the pilgrims. Pastors, mobile ministers, teachers, medical and social workers, they widen the path the first settlers marked. Their atom-age wilderness is a tangle of changing neighborhoods, fresh-leafed new towns, trailer camps, and soot-grimed city streets.

Their outpost missions, community centers, welfare programs, and counseling services, the 101 new churches last year and the 2,200 other mission-aided, are 3,500 way stations along what the General Assembly calls a "missionary road."

"To radiate the light of God and mediate the love of God," the 1958 assembly said in a letter to congregations, "the Church must be a pilgrim Church. God summons us to pilgrimage, to life on the missionary road. We must journey not only along desert paths and jungle trails, but in the teeming alleys of our cities. God commands us to be missionaries not only in the community where we live, not alone in the national environment of our home church, but to the ends of the earth. The Church's place is the frontier . . . [which] is wherever any sector of thought or life has to be occupied in the name of Jesus Christ."

The Christian College

The Christian College is a top priority among the many responsibilities of the Church. As Dr. Paul Calvin Payne has said, the church entered the field of Higher Education when the Apostle Paul was converted and turned his mind toward the exposition of the Christian faith.

The nature of our world sets Christian Higher Education in a framework of urgency. Russia is not underestimating the power which rests in training and educating. In this field the Russians are more diligent than ourselves. Their children attend school six days a week, ten months a year. Their high schools give more adequate training in science and mathematics than ours. According to a statement by Ex-Senator Benton, their doctorate "makes most of our Ph.D's appear like diplomas from Junior Colleges." Gifted students are encouraged and aided to go as far educationally as they are able. An adult education program involves millions. The emphasis may be heavily weighted toward "training" as against "education" but their serious effort stands as a great challenge to us.

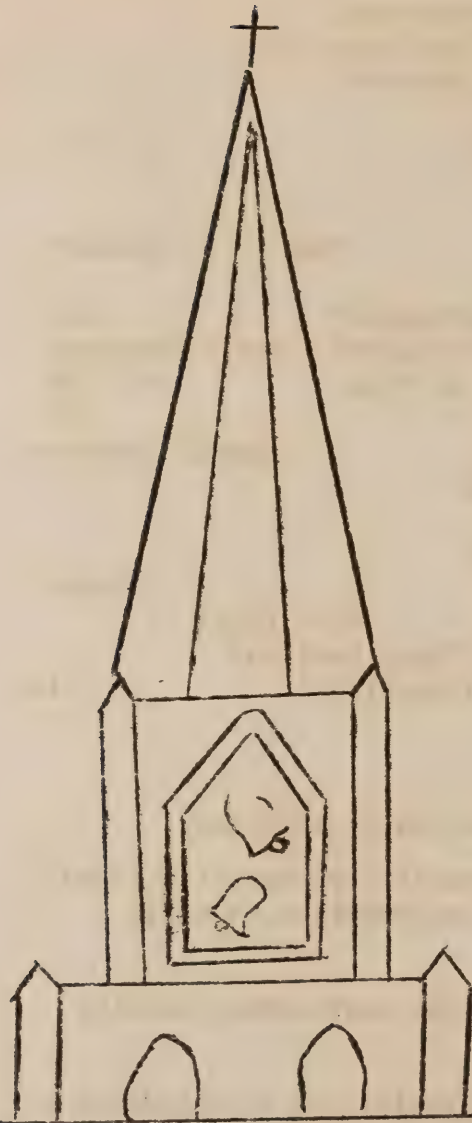

In such a world there is a special need for the Christian College. The church believes it makes a world of difference what kind of education we have. The state schools are and will remain a part of the American way in higher education. So will the Christian College! But the churches have not always understood the tremendous influence and importance of their colleges. They remain crucial to the future of America and the world as they provide a steady flow of graduates into the mainstream of our national life. Without these church colleges the educational system would be infinitely poorer and the church itself would see its power to influence culture and civilization greatly reduced.

The church college exists because our fathers saw the vital connection between faith and learning. The contemporary church must recapture this vision. Let me urge every Christian who reads these words to lend his influence, his prayers, and his financial resources to that segment of the academic world known as the Christian College. These schools when provided with the necessary resources of good students and sufficient money can always prove that the best scholarship is not incompatible with faith and that, since Christ is truth, there is never any need to fear an exploration of new truths. Here true education can flourish exactly because, since Christ is truth, there need not remain the fear to explore new truths. Without apology we invite your interest and support for the Christian College.

MINISTER:

For the challenging of our consciences, the stimulation of our minds, the comforting of our hearts, and the enrichment of our spiritual lives,

PEOPLE:

We thank thee, O Lord, and dedicate ourselves to search the Scriptures, diligently.

Prayer of Dedication (IN UNISON)

O Lord Jesus Christ, who art the truth incarnate and the teacher of the faithful; let thy spirit overshadow us in reading thy Word, and conform our thoughts to thy revelation, that learning of thee with honest hearts, we may be rooted and built up in thee; who livest and reigneth with the Father, and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. We have just received word from Isabel Miller that the kitchen-dining room assembly building at Rainbow Glacier Camp has been completely destroyed by fire. This leaves a real need for finances, and the appeal is to all who may be able to help. However, the camps skeduled for August will go ahead as planned: Jr. High Camp, Aug. 12-19; Jr. Camp, Aug. 20-26. Registration forms for the Junior Camp should be filled out and sent in as soon as possible. Forms are in the rear of the sanctuary.

Jerry Allen who has served in our church during the months of June, July and August will be leaving for Wheaton College and way points this Thursday noon via air. The officers and congregation are g rateful for the services he has shared in our midst. May the Lord continue to bless you.

A few personal questions on Christian growth:

God gives me one day at a time.... I have been using much of it for myself. Now as I begin to think of my relationship with Him, how much can I afford to give in appreciation for all He has done for me?

I am about to make an important choice, how will I approach this task... through my own decision, talking it over with others, going to church and letting my Faith become stronger and let Him guide me ?

What are come things which I do now that are not Christian?

Have I given my heart to the Lord?

Since early Spring of 1959 we as a church in this area have planned for active participation in Alaska Presbytery's 'Lend-Lease' Counseling under the leadership of Mayreld Swanson, DCE. We are in the midst of this program at first starting with a Christian Education Conference for parents, teachers, church officers, and others, Sept. 27 (see enclosed program).

To increase the usefulness of this church we have included the following to this year's programming: a regular weekly service in the City and Federal Prison; a Sunday afternoon service in Thlingit, 3 to 4 PM. With other activities under way we will practically double last year's services for this area.

This do

in remembrance of Me

The Chalice of Antioch is conceded to be the oldest Communion cup in existence.

To our choir and C. E. Peck, Sr., director; Mrs. Adelaide Paulson, and Janet Soboleff, for the ministry of music.

The Last Supper

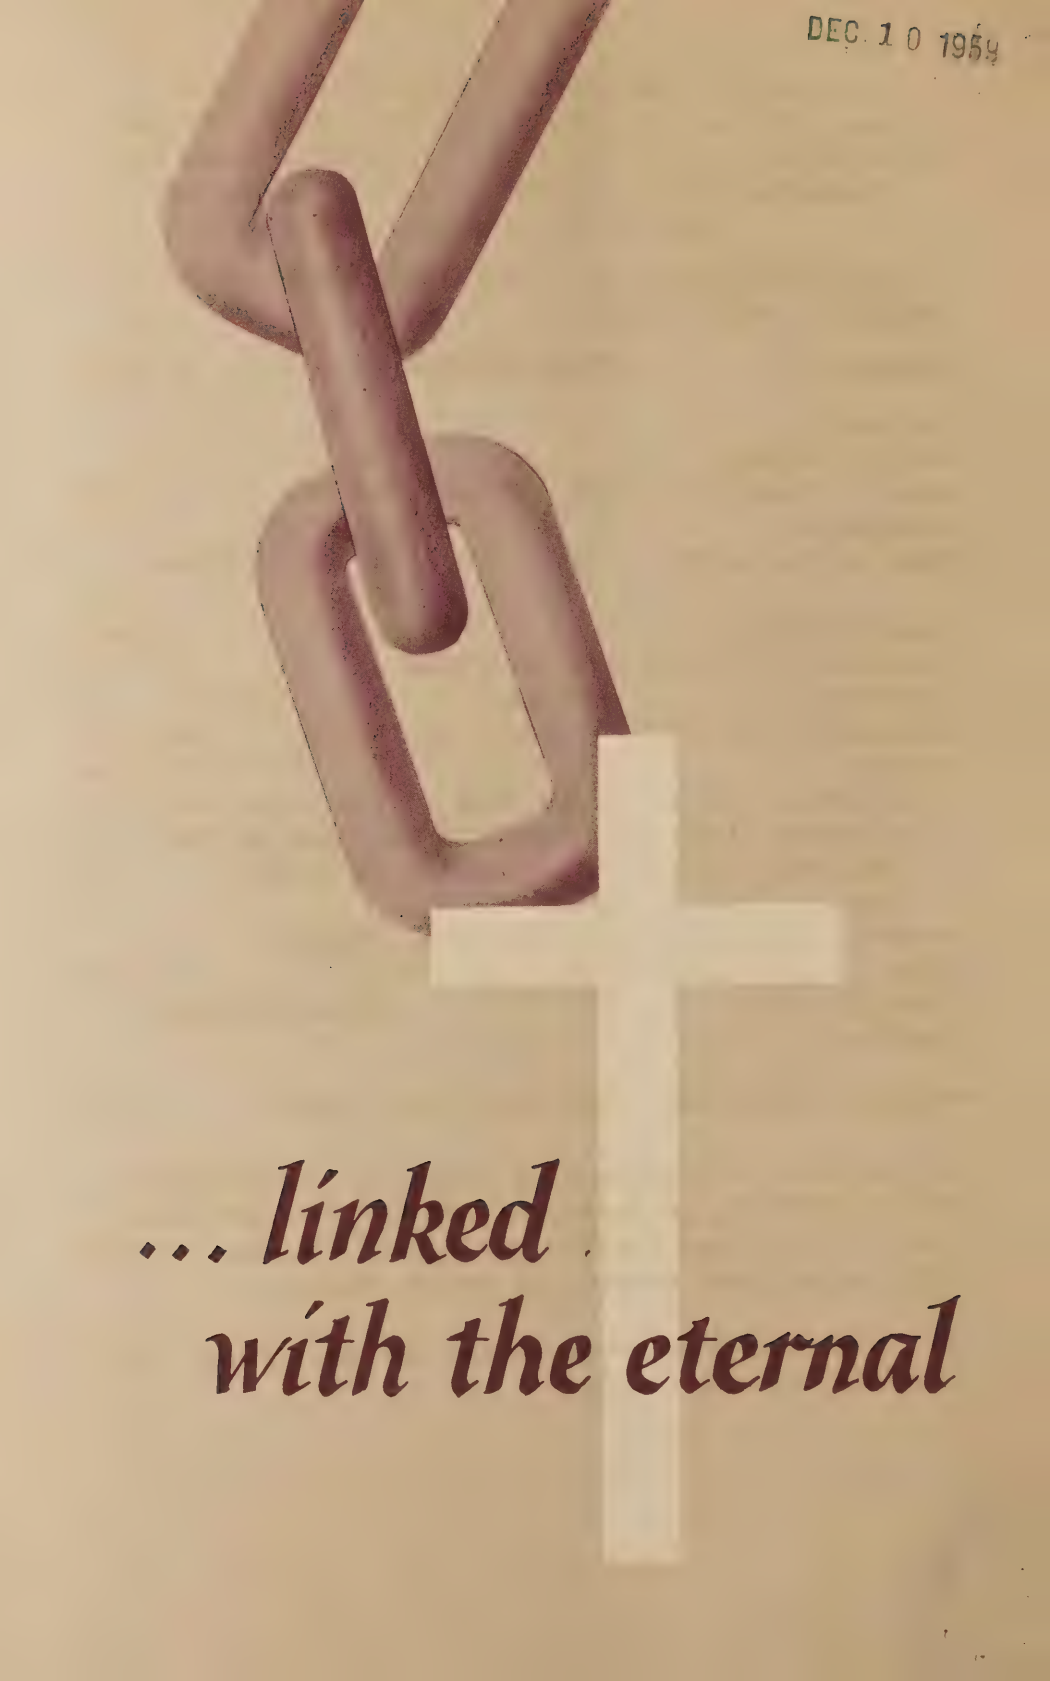

And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the passover lamb, his disciples said to him, "Where will you have us go and prepare for you to eat the passover?" And he sent two of his disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him, and wherever he enters, say to the householder, 'The Teacher says, Where is my guest room, where I am to eat the passover with my disciples?' And he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; there prepare for us." And the disciples set out and went to the city, and found it as he had told them; and they prepared the passover.

And when it was evening he came with the twelve. And as they were at the table eating, Jesus said, "Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me." They began to be sorrowful, and to say to him one after another, "Is it I?" He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread in the same dish with me. For the Son of man goes, as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

And as they were eating, he took bread, and blessed it, and broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. And he said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly, I say to you, I shall not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the Kingdom of God. And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives."

HOW TO GIVE YET RECEIVE. You can make a substantial gift to the Church without reducing your income. How? Through the income and annuity plans of the United Presbyterian Foundation. Individuals or couples who make an endowment gift to benefit the Church or one of its causes are paid an income for life. Write to United Presbyterian Foundation (Don Emerson Hall, Director), 156 Fifth Avenue, New York 10, N. Y., for new brief descriptive folder.

THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN RADIO AND TELEVISION DEPARTMENT cooperates with the statement adopted by the World Conference on Christian Broadcasting that "It is the mission of the church in fulfillment of her Lord's Command to tell the Good News of Salvation through Jesus Christ everywhere. Among the newer means of communicating the Gospel, radio and television offer the Church a God-given means by which her voice can be heard by millions still outside the Christian fellowship."

STUDENTS VISIT BRAZIL. Protestant students from eleven countries of Europe, the Far East and the Americas were stewards at the 18th General Council meetings of the World Alliance of Reformed and Presbyterian Churches recently held in Sao Paulo, Brazil. The students, including 19 United Presbyterians, ushered, typed and operated mimeograph machines, besides attending sessions. They visited Presbyterian churches, hospitals, farm projects and schools, including the 6,500-student MacKenzie Institute in Sao Paulo, and an industrial evangelism project sponsored by the Brazilian Student Christian Movement.

"WHAT WOULD WE HAVE DONE IF YOU HAD FAILED ME because I was not of your faith?" a Jewish patient recovering from heart surgery asked Chaplain Alvin O. Carlson of the University of Minnesota Hospital in Minneapolis. The patient's wife had called the chaplain, who is also the minister of mission-aided Bethany Church, and asked him to stay with them through the ordeal. The patient's recovery, a doctor said, was "a miracle that took more than medical knowledge." "Spiritual rehabilitation played the most important part," he added.

God's Love

"Could I with ink the ocean fill:
Were the whole sky of parchment made;
Were every blade of grass a quill,
And every man a scribe by trade;
TO TELL THE LOVE OF GOD

ABOVE,
Would drain the ocean dry:
Nor could the scroll contain the whole,
Though stretched from sky to sky."
—Faber

THE CHURCH

And the hour will be filled with music
With songs of praise and prayer,
And the burdens of life shall be lifted
From all who enter there.

A LINK WITH THE ETERNAL

MORE THAN MONEY is involved when a church makes an Every Member Canvass. Concern is first for the spiritual well being of every member, which involves growth in devotion and stewardship. This is the heart and spirit of the program. To reach EVERY MEMBER OF THE CHURCH, not only to secure a financial commitment to the support of the total program of the church, but also to enlist interest and participation is the primary object.

The church emphasizes the spiritual values of Jesus' philosophy of a voluntary, loving stewardship. The core of Christ's teachings is that every person should share in the responsibility for doing the work of God. "No man can truly say that he has made a success of life unless he has written at the top of his life's journal, 'Enter God'," said Robert Louis Stevenson. The coercive power of the Gospel is not the dictum of legalism, but the compelling and controlling influence of the love of a personal God and Saviour.

Every Christian should share to the extent of his ability in support of the work of the church, both locally and world-wide. In like manner, every Christian should faithfully dedicate a portion of his time and abilities to Kingdom service. This he should do, first, for Christ, and finally, for his own spiritual growth. "But seek first his kingdom, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well." (Matt. 6:33.)

REFORMATION SUNDAY

O Almighty God who hast built Thy Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the head cornerstone; Grant we beseech Thee, that being gathered together in unity by Thy Holy Spirit, Thy Church may manifest Thy power among all peoples to the glory of Thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen

THE REFORMATION

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther posted on the doors of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany, ninety-five theses denouncing abuses rampant in the Church of his day. This incident signalized a series of events that gave rise to the Reformation. Luther acted in the name of God's Word as set forth in the Bible. In order that the Bible might be better known, Luther produced a translation of incomparable strength. His work influenced the English translators Tyndale and Coverdale down to the Revised Standard version.

A mighty Fortress is our God,
A Bulwark never failing;
Our Helper he amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing:
For still our ancient Foe
Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great,
And, armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

—Martin Luther, 1529

UNITED CLOTHING APPEAL.

The idle garments that hang in the closets of America and the seldom-used clothing that is packed away in trunks and attics, hold the difference between life and death, in many cases, for orphans, widows, refugees, victims of disaster and the pitifully poor overseas. Our churches working to ease tragic suffering must send at least ten million pounds of useful garments into the areas of greatest need each year. See that all clothing you contribute is in good condition, cleaned and mended. Take it, together with your 8 cents per pound contribution for processing costs, to your church at the time designated. Your church will forward both clothing and poundage to the nearest Church World Service clothing center. Remember the millions of refugees and other needy people around the world, regularly, in your prayers.

RELIGION IN AMERICAN LIFE'S 11th annual campaign will be conducted throughout the United States during November. For the third consecutive year the theme "FIND STRENGTH FOR YOUR LIFE . . . WORSHIP TOGETHER THIS WEEK" will be repeated in all media as a call to all Americans to attend the Church of their choice.

STEWARDSHIP was the life philosophy of Jesus. Over and over again he said, "I must work the works of him that sent me while it is day." The sharing life was and is the very key to good stewardship. Sharing is more than giving. It is giving plus the giver. The rich man at the treasury box by the temple gave, but the poor woman with her mite shared her very life.

But let us not make the mistake of thinking of stewardship merely in terms of money. Stewardship is in the spirit of the man. Stewardship shares with Christ his passion to help anywhere and everywhere, to the last ounce of strength and to the last moment of life.

STEWARDS OF LIFE!

Stewards of life! The Lord of life now calls us

To dream, to pray, to serve and bravely give;

To use for God and man what God has given,

And in the spirit of the Christ to live:

Daily an offering making to the Saviour - -

Our sacred wealth and talents, strength and time:

In holy stewardship ourselves we offer - -

This be our life, a ministry sublime!

O God of love, O Christ of true compassion,

We heed Thy call of old, heard now again,

To heal and teach, proclaiming God's salvation:

New life and hope to all the sons of men.

So may the earth become Thy glorious kingdom,

Thy will prevail from dawn to set of sun;

Then shall all life be filled with heavenly splendor,

Glad in the triumph of God's victory won. Amen.

Session meeting 2 held

This month after much planning we have Mayreld Swanson, Christian Education Director, assisting in our program. Our entire Sunday School Staff is being briefed on teaching methods; Trustees are called into action for improved class room facilities, painting, etc, clean up etc.

May I suggest that if there is no other assignment for Mayreld Swanson after this December that she remain in this area and continue aid in our Christian Education program. Should this be the thing to do we could work out further details.

FIND THE STRENGTH FOR YOUR LIFE Worship Together This Week and Every Week

*I read
In a book
That a man called
CHRIST
Went about doing good.
It is very disconcerting to me
That I am so easily
Satisfied
With just Going about.*

—Toyohiko Kagawa

NEVER LET A WEEK GO BY without spending some time in friendly calling on behalf of your church. Your interest in others may be all that is needed to start someone on the road to finding Christ and the fulfillment of life.

A PRAYER

Lord, let not my religion be
A thing of selfish ecstasy;
But something warm with tender care
And fellowship which I can share.
Let me not walk the other side
Of trouble's highway long and wide;
Make me a Good Samaritan,
And neighbor unto every man.

—Clarence M. Burkholder.

ONE WITH ANOTHER. The local churches are the strength of THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U.S.A. These number more than 9,500 with a membership of over 3,150,000. Actually the total constituency is even more—some 5,500,000. These local churches are to be found in every state of the Union, including Alaska and Hawaii. Some are inner city churches; some rural churches, some "downtown central" churches. They range from a handful of members to over 6,000, though the majority of churches have between 200 and 400 members. The local church is also a part of the great Ecumenical Church in every corner of the world. Our stewardship therefore must be dedicated to the world-wide program of our Church. Every Church enlisted in the service of God must have funds with which to operate. The local church must provide for Spiritual Leadership, administrative leadership, the church school, the church plant, and for all activities related to the local church. But the local church does not live unto itself, every church has a part in the TOTAL MISSION of our United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. To this end every church shares in National Missions, Ecumenical Missions, Christian Education, Pensions, Theological Education, Presbytery, Synod, the General Assembly—the program is one—and the cause is one in CHRIST.

EVERYONE TO WHOM MUCH IS GIVEN, OF HIM MUCH WILL BE REQUIRED. Luke 12:48

GOD HAS GIVEN US ALL WE HAVE—even life itself—and through the gift of His Son Jesus Christ has shown us how to live as His disciples. Christ established the Church, it is God's instrument for salvation in our world, the center of Christian Fellowship and a source of personal strength, inspiration and inner peace. Our church provides opportunities for our children to grow strong in the Christian way of life through the Church School, Youth Fellowship and other group activities.

OUR CHURCH is a fellowship of Christians undergirded by God Himself,—we are His Stewards. As Christian Stewards we believe in the practice of systematic and proportionate giving of time, abilities and material possessions based on the conviction that these are a trust from God, to be used in His service for the benefit of all mankind in grateful acknowledgment of Christ's redeeming love.

CALL TO RENEWED PRAYER

Sensitive of the blessings already graciously bestowed upon the Church, but also of the immeasurable divine resources awaiting the Church's asking, and mindful of the world's desperate need, the 171st General Assembly, which met in Indianapolis in May, upon the recommendation of the General Council, called the entire Church through all its congregations to renewed earnestness in intercessory prayer for the whole world for which Christ died, and to the end that the Church might more adequately fulfill her mission in the world today.

SET APART TIME FOR INTERCESSORY PRAYER at Session meetings — Deacon meetings — Trustees' meetings — Women's Association meetings — United Presbyterian Men's meetings — Sunday evening services — Mid-week services — Westminster Fellowship — Presbytery meetings — Synod meetings — Presbyterian and Synodicals — General Councils of Juridicatories — Presbytery conferences and rallies — and best of all in small groups committed to coming together for prayer for the Church, remembering that "For where two or three are gathered in MY Name, there am I in the midst of them."

THE AMOUNT OF YOUR PLEDGE for local expenses and Benevolences will determine what our United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. will do for Christ and your fellowmen this coming year, both in our local community as well as nationally and throughout the world.

HIS IS THE GLORY

Having something to give is a great blessing, but it is also danger. We are in peril of feeling that our surplus is our own, and that we are fine, generous people to share it with God and His Church.

An anonymous Christian has written: "The good that we are privileged to do is something God gives to enrich us, not something we give to enrich God." Whoever may benefit from the work God has guided my hand to do, I benefit most of all.

When we Presbyterians catch ourselves feeling smug about our good works and bountiful giving, we might remember a prayer by George Herbert: Thou hast given so much to us—give one thing more, a grateful heart.

OUR CHURCH

The essence of Christianity is not majestic cathedrals, stately ritual, or any form of political, social or industrial order, or any philosophy or scientific theory. It is love of God, good will to man, and the practice of the pure life. It is the mission of our Church to make Jesus Christ real in the lives of our people. We believe: "For God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." John 3:16. We welcome you to our church. We hope that you will find friendliness, reverence, and a Christ-like atmosphere in this sanctuary.

PRESBYTERIAN LIFE, the official magazine of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.:

PRESENTS news of world-wide Christianity.

REPORTS events that affect the course of history.

FEATURES evidence of Christian living and Christian action.

RECORDS what the Church is doing and saying.

PORTRAYS the people of the Church in action.

REFLECTS the life and growth of the Church.

THE CHRISTIAN TITHE — Many churches have recently experimented with tithing and the results have been little short of thrilling. Tithing gives churches confidence, it convinces men and women that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

Praise and Thanksgiving

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance. Psa. 33:1, 12.

I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together. Psa. 34:1, 3.

Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands: sing forth the honor of his name: make his praise glorious. Psa. 66:1, 2.

O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth. Selah. Psa. 67:4.

O come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms. Psa. 95:1, 2.

Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. Psa. 103:1, 2.

O give thanks unto the Lord; call upon his name; make known his deeds among the people. Glory ye in his holy name; let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord. Psa. 105:1, 3.

Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. Psa. 116:5, 12, 13.

It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him. Lam. 3:22, 24.

Joyous Christmas

"Fear not! Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people."—Luke 2:10

JOY to the world! the Lord is come;

Let earth receive her King,

Let every heart prepare Him room,

And heaven and nature sing.

JOY to the earth! the Saviour reigns:

Let men their songs employ,

While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains

Repeat the sounding joy.

HE rules the world with truth and grace,

And makes the nations prove

The glories of his righteousness,

And wonder of his love.

THE story of the Christ Child in the manger, the Star of Bethlehem, the Shepherds, is an old, old story but no other story is so joyous, so simple, so full of love. There was joy in the birth of Jesus, holy joy in the heart of Mary, awesome joy in the hearts of the Shepherds and pure joy in the song of the Angels.

JESUS the world's Great Joy-bringer had come bringing inexpressible joy and love to all the world.

There's a song in the air!

There's a star in the sky!

There's a mother's deep prayer,

And a baby's low cry!

And the star rains its fire while the beautiful sing,

For the manger of Bethlehem cradles a King!

We rejoice in the light,

And we echo the song

That comes down through the night

From the heavenly throng.

Ay! we shout to the lovely evangel they bring,

And we greet in his cradle our Saviour and King!

ANOTHER DAY — A N O T H E R WAY. The wise men after visiting the Babe in the manger, went back the other way. No one can really see Christ and go back the same way. Life does become different from that hour. Let us leave our hates . . . and go back the way of persistent goodwill; let us leave our racial prejudices . . . and go back the way of a human brotherhood that will transcend all distinctions of color and class; let us leave all half-way responses, all compromises and go back to be abandoned to Him and to His Kingdom. Another Day, another Way!

AS YEARS PASS life should grow earnest. Each year comes but once. Its light and grace, its joys and griefs, leave their mark; but it goes away forever. Its work if undone must remain undone. The shortened future only is left. Well if it be sobered and made earnest by a sense of past shortcomings, and a loving reverence for God.

LIFE demands more from all of us than the mere ability to make a respectable living. It also demands that we live respectably among our fellows. The home which does not train its youth in certain simple responsibilities works a terrible injustice upon them, even though all other advantages are supplied them.

TODAY CHURCHES BID STUDENTS WELCOME HOME. Students have returned to their homes and churches for the Christmas vacation and today the church welcomes them home.

"He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully."
II Cor. 9:6

1959-1960

PRAYER: Our Father, we give thee back the year which thou gavest us at the beginning. Confirm all that is good in it; pardon all that is wrong in it; take it into the treasury of the years for that future accounting which we shall have before Thee. Through Thy mercy we have come to the gateway of another year. Grant that we may enter it with humble and grateful hearts; and confirm our resolution to walk more closely in thy way and labor more faithfully in thy service.
—Amen.

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year: "Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown:

And he replied: "Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way."

So I went forth, and finding the Hand of God, trod gladly into the night. And He led me towards the hills and the breaking of day in the lone East.

So heart be still:
What need our little life
Our human life to know,
If God hath comprehension?
In all the dizzy strife
Of things both high and low,
God hideth His intention.

God knows. His will
Is best. The stretch of years
Which wind ahead, so dim
To our imperfect vision,
Are clear to God. Our fears
Are premature; In Him
All time hath full provision.

Then rest: until
God moves to lift the veil
From our impatient eyes,
When, as the sweeter features
Of Life's stern face we hail,
Fair beyond all surmise
God's thought around His creatures
Our mind shall fill.

Louise Haskins.

*Come, Thou long-expected Jesus,
Born to set Thy people free;
From our fears and sins release us;
Let us find our rest in Thee.*

*Born Thy people to deliver,
Born a child, and yet a King,
Born to reign in us for ever,
Now Thy gracious kingdom bring.*

 goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am His,
 and He is mine for ever. Where streams of living water flow, my ransomed soul He leadeth, and where the verdant pastures grow, with food celestial feedeth.
 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, but yet in love
 He sought me, and on His shoulder gently laid, and home rejoicing brought me. In death's dark vale I fear no ill with Thee, dear Lord, beside me; Thy rod grace bestoweth, and O, the transport of delight with

 Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise within Thy house

"God warms His Hands at man's heart when he prays."

Church bells ring out the watchword "make way for the King." It is Advent, the season of preparation for the Christmas miracle. Hearts long bowed under grief and oppression look joyously to His coming. In childlike faith we wait for Him, the Saviour of the world. With deepened trust we take up the song "Come, Thou Long-expected Jesus."

THIS CHRISTMAS, WILL YOU

Remember the little child in the orphanage; the family unable to provide for their children because of some unfortunate circumstance or illness; the lonely person far away from home; some older man or woman on the western slope of life; the immigrant family having their first Christmas in a new land. This Christmas season as you prepare to hang the holly wreath and light the candle, will you pray:

Lord, let me keep a Christmas heart
That hears and sees another's need.
And strives each day to follow thee
In word and deed. Amen.

PRAYER

O Lord, Thou art Light to those that seek Thee, Life to those that find Thee, Love to those that trust Thee. Shine into my heart, Lord Jesus, and let me become a light in the world. Amen.

GOD IS WITH US

And they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.
—Matt. 1:23.

For every puzzle there is a solution. Life is the greatest of all puzzles, and the Advent message is the key to the answer. The nearness and intimacy of God is the heart of this message. He does not dwell apart in some high and holy place with no more interest in individuals than we have for separate blades of grass trampled beneath our feet. He becomes the friend and comrade who enters into our experience and is acquainted with all our ways. Such is the Divinity whose advent this season commemorates—One born as a child in Bethlehem in the simplest and humblest way; working as an artisan in the shop at Nazareth, as all toilers have worked; going about from village to village with a tender touch for every fevered brow and a ray of light for every blinded eye; toiling up the hill toward Calvary with a cross on his back and an ache in his heart. It is the story of this Divine Comrade, this friendly God who lives within us here and now, that makes this season meaningful and kindles the warm glow of good will at Advent time.

TELL THE GLAD TIDINGS

"They made known abroad the saying . . . concerning the Child." Luke 2:17.

When the shepherds had found their Saviour, they no longer could keep the great discovery to themselves. "They made known the saying which was told them concerning the Child." That is always the Christian's reaction to his Lord.

Christ deals with men individually; each must accept Him personally. Though we cannot believe for another still we are knit together so that none of us is brought to the knowledge of salvation for himself only. No man liveth unto himself.

Our Christmas celebration is by no means complete unless, like the shepherds, we too make known the saying concerning Jesus Christ.

There are many people who need the light that Christ brought to earth more than 1900 years ago. We must bear testimony of Christ and His redeeming love to those among whom we live and among those of the uttermost parts of the earth. The greatest gift we can give anyone is Jesus, the Saviour.

The birthday of Our Lord draws near;

The "Day-of-Days" of all the year;
day of hope and joy and cheer.

Keep Jesus Christ in Christmas!
